

National Autism Conference

August 5 - 8, 2019
The Penn Stater Conference Center Hotel
State College, Pennsylvania

PROGRESS
THROUGH PARTNERSHIP

Early Intervention Days

Don't miss these sessions focusing on Young Children with ASD:

Monday, August 5, 2019

#6

Francesca degli Espinosa – Early Social Responding and Verbal Behavior: An Analysis of Current Applications, Both Natural and Structured

Tuesday, August 6, 2018

#18

Anna Dvortcsak – Project ImPACT (Improving Parents as Communication Teachers: A Parent Training Curriculum Birth through 6)

#34

Sarah Bloom – Trial-based Functional Analysis and Functional Communication in an Early Childhood Setting

TBD

Donna Miller & Val Postal – Coaching Families on the Implementation of ABA Strategies in Everyday Routines and Activities

Wednesday, August 7, 2018

#51

Missy Oliver – Practical, Behavioral Based Approaches and Strategies for Young Children with ASD who are "Picky Eaters"

#67

Mary Mikus, Shelley Chapin along with Parents of Young Children with ASD
How Can I Include My Young Child with ASD in Preschool and Community? A Family Forum on Evidence-Based Practices

#68

Ami Klin – Early Development of Social Reciprocity

El Focused Promising Practices

Wednesday

Laurie Ragan – It Takes a Village – A Process for Identifying and Talking about Early Signs of ASD.

Jeannette Newman – Project ImPACT in Action: Philadelphia Infant Toddler Early Intervention