

PennState

Early Childhood Information National Autism Conference August 1-4, 2022

Extended PA EI Family Scholarship Opportunity: Deadline: July 30, 2022

APPLY HERE for reimbursement for conference costs, lodging, meals and mileage. Travel expenses must be paid up-front by the family scholarship recipient. Reimbursement occurs 4-6 weeks after the conference.

Allowable Expenses for Reimbursement up to $1000 per PA family:

- Conference registration reimbursement for up to 2 parents/guardians/family members. Conference registration closes July 24, 2022 @5pm. Register for the conference here: <https://autism.outreach.psu.edu/registration/>
- Lodging reimbursement during the conference if you live at least 30 miles from the conference location. A lodging receipt that shows your name and the amount you paid is required. Reimbursement up to $140 per night, for a maximum amount of $560. You are encouraged to make your hotel reservations immediately, as rooms become more limited as the conference date approaches.
- Mileage will be reimbursed at .625 per mile and tolls. Maximum mileage reimbursement of $250.
- Meal reimbursement for each family member is $20 for dinner. Daily continental breakfast, lunch and snacks are provided at the National Autism Conference. Meal receipts are required.
- Receipts for any additional approved expenses must be submitted for reimbursement.

EI Family Luncheon: Tuesday, August 2, 2022, 12:00-1:00pm

Please join us for lunch with your families and children @ Dean's Hall! We welcome all families and caregivers with young children (ages 0-5). Connect with other families, share your stories and explore resources! No registration required.

Sponsored by Early Intervention Technical Assistance \(EITA\) and Parents as Partners in Professional Development \(P3D\).

Early Childhood-Focused Sessions:

*Check out the Schedule Here: Early Childhood Sessions Schedule- NAC 2022

Questions? For more information, please contact Shelley Chapin schapin@pattan.net.

